The members of the Knights of the Golden Eagle are requested to meet at their Castle tomorrow morning at 9:30 to attend the special services at the M. E. Church.

Colonel James N. Kirk owned the cattle that went down in the L. and N. wreck at Cowan. They cost him considerably over $1,000; but the loss, whatever it may be, will fall upon the Railway Company.

THE IMPETUOUS LOVER.
He loves her for all he is worth, they say.
He loves her far more, does he?
For he sent her a $100 present today
And borrowed the price from you.

Fresh oysters, celery and fresh meat on Plum street.
R. M. WALLINGFORD.

There is a "bread war" on in Cincinnati, and some dealers are selling the staff of life at 2 cents a loaf.

The women of the M. E. Church, South, are requested to meet in the Church parlor Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is important that you be present.

The Y. R. S. are requested to meet at their hall at 7 o'clock Monday night.
ELMER WATKINS, Secretary.

Prof. John B. McIntyre, Editor of the Bath County Democrat, is announced as a candidate for Chief Clerk of the lower house of the next Legislature.

The loss to the L. and N. Railway by the freight wreck Thursday afternoon at Cowan will approximate $5,000. The wreck was caused by a flange on one of the freight cars breaking.

Rev. W. H. Calvert, who has been Pastor of the M. E. Church at Sardis for the past few years, has with his family taken up his home at his new charge, Cold Springs, Campbell county.

Postoffice thieves got in their work at Mt. Olivet Wednesday night, securing $2 in money and $14.50 in stamps. A fine horse and buggy were also stolen from other parties the same night.

The Sunday-school Convention will be held at Maysville tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., sun time.

Our Merchandise Bulletin!

This sale was not started by accident. It didn't come by "a streak of luck." The necessities of an estate settlement demanded it. Careful planning, judicious buying, courage to sacrifice profits (as the better part of valor for us, as well as for you) determined its success. And success sometimes brings inconvenience. It has so rushed us we could not always wait upon you with the promptness you desired—and deserved. Last week we strengthened our sales force therefore promise quicker attention in future. Another inconvenience of our very busy days. Our ad remained unchanged too long for sustained interest. Hereafter better arrangements in this respect will prevent a repetition. And now to price facts.

THEY'RE CALLED Peco Skirts!

Peculiar name, peculiar skirts. We mean peculiar in their perfection for dollar skirts. They have more style and wear than any dollar and a half skirts we've seen. You know a skirt with 50 years reputation for straightforwardness can't afford to sell unsatisfactory goods of any sort so you can absolutely depend upon what we say of this line of undershirts. The material, making, trimming are all and more than you can expect. Other skirts at other prices. Hint ask to see the Peco. Black. Winter weight. One dollar.

BLANKETS!

Never a stock so inviting, never values so excellent. Suggested by the present cool weather and to call particular attention to the splendid resources of this department, we specially invite you to examine a superior, pure California Wool 6-pound 11-4 57 1/2 Blanket we are offering during this sale

For $5.00!

D. HUNT & SON.

For the Little Ones.

Childhood enjoys "fine feathers" as much as maturity does and nowhere can its love for "clothes beauty" be better satisfied than here. We have an exhibit of Misses' and Children's Coats that far exceeds any effort of previous years. Priced as all merchandise during this sale—to your benefit. Exquisite styles, faultless workmanship, beautiful fabrics, artistic trimming.

CHILDREN'S COATS.
Lengths 22, 24, 26 inches. Ages 1 to 11 years. Colors, red, blue, tan, mode.
Prices, $2.50 to $12.

MISSIES' COATS.
Lengths 24, 26 inches. Ages 12, 14, 16 years. Colors, tan, mode, grey, brown, red. Prices $3 to $18.

The Pastor's Union will meet next Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

Elder T. P. Hegman has just closed a very successful meeting at Bathany with twenty-four added to the Church. This winds up an almost continuous Pastorate of twenty-six years.

Mr. Cren Black's house near Fernleaf was slightly damaged by fire about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The blaze started in the kitchen. Mr. I. M. Lane's force of hands is today repairing the damages.

In an address before the Kentucky Republican Club in Washington, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes declared in favor of a reduction of the Congressional representation in the Southern states.

The Kentucky Synod of the Presbyterian Church, which is in session in Hopkinsville, has been discussing plans for the founding of a college in this state for the higher education of women. The next meeting of the synod will be held in Lexington.

THE LEIDGER regrets to learn that Editor George W. Oldham has concluded to discontinue publication of The Sunday Morning Call, which has for nearly twenty years been a welcome weekly visitor to so many families. It is hoped that he may revive it at an early date, and receive that generous support which every local publication deserves.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray Potter of Louisville have just announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Salter, to Mr. Harry I. Wood.

The marriage will be solemnized early in January at Miss Potter's home, but no arrangements have been made for the wedding other than that Miss Eugenia Potter will be the Maid of Honor.

The bride-elect has been the charming guest of Mrs. Charles D. Pearce and has many friends in this city.

BRICK THROUGH WINDOW.

How a Maysville Newport Lady Sent in Her Fire Alarm.

The Newport Fire Department responded to a still alarm Thursday at the residence of Dr. W. R. Hoffman to East Fifth street, that city, where the party covering a stove pipe hole in the wall had caught fire, setting fire to a picture.

The blaze was extinguished with only small loss.

Mrs. Hoffman discovered the fire, and living directly behind Engine Company No. 1, rushed to the back fence, and, being unable to attract the attention of the firemen, she shed a brick through the window in the rear of the fire house, breaking the frame and every pane of glass in it.

The damage done to the fire house was greater than the damage done to the fire.

The saloons and cabins of these vessels are also lighted with acetylene.

One of the most attractive features of Swedish life is the politeness of the children. As soon as a boy is able to stand on his legs he is taught to make a low bow and to shake hands. A girl must be able to make a low courtesy before she has learned to talk. As soon as the right hand is known from the left it must be offered in greeting, or when a gift or favor has been received, and one of the first lessons learned by the children after papa and mamma is "thank," the Swedish term for thanks. It is heard more frequently than any other word in the language.
